TUE. JAN. 8

7:30 p.m.

DePue Brothers Band

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

These four violinist brothers encompass a vivid blend resulting in a style they refer to as “Grassical”—a combination of bluegrass and classical music, with elements of jazz, blues and rock mixed in. The DePues were named “Musical Family Of America” by a presidential decree, were the subject of a PBS documentary, and Jason and Zach were featured in the film Music From The Inside Out.

Tickets are required for this free event.

MON. JAN. 21

7:30 p.m.

Nashville Avenue Stompers

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

The Nashville Avenue Stompers is an ensemble formed by VCU Jazz Director Antonio García to perform traditional New Orleans jazz and more. With clarinet, trumpet, trombone, tuba, percussion and the occasional piano and vocals, the group has performed at weddings, funerals, social events and in concert, each in N’Awlins style to Laissez Les Bons Temps Rouler (Let The Good Times Roll).

Tickets are required for this free event.

MON. FEB. 4
7:30 p.m.

Richmond Piano Trio

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Richmond Concert Band

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Since 1971, the Richmond Concert Band has been entertaining audiences throughout the Richmond area and beyond. From Goochland to Virginia Beach and from Ashland to Emporia, the band has presented its special brand of family entertainment to audiences of all sizes.

Tickets are required for this free event.

MON. MAR. 11
7:30 p.m.

Nashville Legacy

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Though Floyd Cramer and Chet Atkins have passed away, their Nashville Legacy lives on through Floyd's grandson, pianist Jason Coleman, and Chet's niece, guitarist Meagan Taylor. In this concert, Jason and Meagan bring new life to the "Nashville Sound" pioneered by their legendary forerunners by playing songs like Floyd's Last Date on piano and Chet's Freight Train on guitar, as well as by singing the music of Patsy Cline, the Everly Brothers and Elvis Presley.

Tickets are required for this free event.

THU. MAR. 14
7:30 p.m.

VCU Jazz Orchestra I SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

This big band will perform a mix of swing, ballad, Latin and blues styles for your listening pleasure. A favorite of Westminster Canterbury residents, the ensemble returns to our stage to show why the VCU Jazz Program is considered one of the best in the U.S. Come enjoy!

Tickets are required for this free event.

THU. MAR. 21
4 p.m.

Cavalier 21 SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Music Director Justin Williams founded Cavalier 21 in 2017 in order to introduce the Greater Richmond Area to a bold, youthful string orchestra sound. The orchestra is comprised of the 21 foremost string musicians from Clover Hill High School Academy for the Arts in Midlothian, Virginia.

Tickets are required for this free event.

William Florian

Those Were The Days

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

A former singer with the New Christy Minstrels, William Florian is a gifted and professional musician who mesmerizes his audience with the music of the 60s. William weaves songs, stories and humor as he presents his show - Those Were The Days. Audiences will be treated to the songs of Peter, Paul and Mary; John Denver; The Mamas and The Papas and other well-known groups of the era.

Tickets are required for this free event.

WED. APR. 3

7:30 p.m.

Richmond Ballet

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Now in its 35th professional season, Richmond Ballet, The State Ballet of Virginia, is dedicated to the education, promotion, preservation and continuing evolution of the art form of ballet. Under the leadership of founding Artistic Director, Stoner Winslett, it is guided by its founding mission to awaken and uplift the human spirit, both for audiences and artists. The Ballet reaches more than 100,000 people annually.

Tickets are required for this free event.

TUE. APR. 9
7:30 p.m.

Janoska Ensemble

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

True art knows no frontiers, and the music of the three brothers Frantiek and Roman Janoska and their Konstanz-born brother-in-law, Julius Darvas, proves that in remarkable fashion. Their musical creations happily harmonize or colorfully contrast their classical style with the music of other genres – from jazz and Latin to pop music. The consequence is not a mix of styles, however. It is a creative synthesis: the Janoska Style. Tickets are required for this free event.

SAT. APR. 27
7:30 p.m.

Richmond Symphony

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Associate Conductor Chia-Hsuan Lin and the Richmond Symphony are thrilled to share a lighthearted evening with you, presenting sparkling and joyful music. Tickets are required for this free event.

LINHART SERIES

Thelma K. Linhart Lindemann served as a Trustee of Westminster Canterbury Foundation from 1990 to 1993 and was a devoted patron of the arts. In 2000, family and friends established an endowment to honor her memory by funding a series of performances each year.

TUE. JAN. 15

7:30 p.m.

The Taters

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

The Taters play an eclectic mix of roots-rock, power-pop, country and Americana. Their sound has been described as “a curious mix of Mavericks, Everly Brothers, Roy Orbison and The Beatles.” The Washington Post says, “The Taters successfully combine the best elements of Buddy Holly with the vocal harmonies of the Everly Brothers. It is hard to walk away from a show without humming the songs.”

Tickets are required for this free event.

TUE. APR. 23

7:30 p.m.

TRAIN Express

Broadway Tonight!

SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Catch the TRAIN Express to the Great White Way and experience the excitement of what is on Broadway right now with a few glorious revivals thrown in. You have seen and heard these students do Classic Broadway and Contemporary Broadway. Now let them thrill you with the current Broadway scene.

WCR FORUM

The WCR Forum Lecture Series is coordinated by a committee of Westminster Canterbury residents. Suggestions should be submitted in writing to the Manager Cultural Arts, Jessica Corbitt.

Dr. Michael Rao

A Nationally Prominent VCU

TUE. JAN. 29

7:30 p.m., SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

For 180 years, Virginia Commonwealth University has served the Richmond region as a university committed to the public good through education, innovation, creativity, service and healthcare. Today, VCU has a $6 billion impact on Virginia. And now, a new strategic plan called Quest 2025: Together We Transform aims to expand the impact VCU makes beyond just the region and the commonwealth to make it a benchmark national research university for the 21st century.

Claiborne Mason

Virginia Home for Boys and Girls

TUE. MAR. 19

7:30 p.m., SARA BELLE NOVEMBER THEATER

Frank Sinatra, 95 boys who served our country in WWII, and the mystery of Mimi Cunningham all played a part in more than 170-year history of Virginia Home for Boys and Girls. Claiborne Mason, president of VHBG, will unpack its fascinating past and present the sweeping changes that are on the horizon for children impacted by trauma in our community.

Tickets are required for these free events.

PASTORAL CARE EVENTS

Holocaust Remembrance Day Service

TUE. JAN. 29

3 p.m., COCHRANE COMMONS

Jews were the primary victims; however, other groups such as the Roma and Sinti peoples, individuals with mental and physical disabilities, and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic or national reasons. We hope you will join us in remembering those who suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi Germany's regime.

MOVIE WITH A MESSAGE

Won't You Be My Neighbor?
TUE. MAR. 12
2 p.m., COCHRANE COMMONS
(1 hr. 34 min.)

For more than 30 years, Fred Rogers, an unassuming minister, puppeteer, writer and producer, was beamed daily into homes across America. In his beloved television program, Mister Rogers' Neighborhood, Rogers and his cast of puppets and friends spoke directly to young children about some of life's weightiest issues in a simple, direct fashion. Won't You Be My Neighbor? is a 2018 American documentary film directed by Morgan Neville about Roger's life and guiding philosophy.

Join us for a discussion of the movie and neighborliness on Wednesday, March 13, starting 3 p.m. on the Roof Terrace.

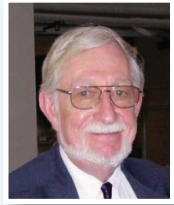

CHAPLAIN'S LECTURES

Dr. James Hall

*Understanding the Stories in the Abrahamic Tradition:
Are They History or Myths? Does It Matter?*

MON. JAN. 14, 21 & 28

3 p.m., MONTAGUE CHAPEL

We will examine Old Testament stories, including the ones about the Garden of Eden, Noah and the ark, and Jonah and the whale. How can we separate the “shell” from the “kernel” in such tales?

Resident Dr. James Hall, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and the University of North Carolina, is an accomplished author and Thomas Professor of Philosophy (Emeritus) at the University of Richmond where he taught for 40 years.

Rev. Dr. Lynn McClintock

Grief and Healing

TUE. JAN. 8

3 p.m., COCHRANE COMMONS

Grieving our losses is a part of life. Dr. McClintock will help us better understand grief and its impact, the factors that complicate grief and approaches for living full lives even when grieving.

Dr. McClintock is Westminster Canterbury's Director of Pastoral Care. As a pastor and former pastoral counselor, Dr. McClintock has supported the grieving for over 30 years. Perhaps more importantly, she continues to learn from her own losses and teaches from the perspective of being a fellow traveler with others on the journey to healing.

Tickets are not required for these free events.

LENTEN LECTURE SERIES

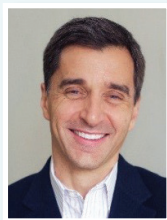

Dr. Jim Somerville

I'm (Still) a Believer:

The Surprising Discoveries of a Growing Faith

TUE. MAR. 19 & 26 and APRIL 2

3 p.m., COCHRANE COMMONS

Dr. Somerville will lead us in a lively, autobiographical romp through his faith journey with plenty of opportunity to reflect on our own as we consider: 1) the faith memories of our childhood, 2) the conversion experiences of adolescence and young adulthood, and 3) the convictions of mature adulthood. Dr. Somerville says, "That's as far as I've gotten. Maybe the residents of Westminster Canterbury can tell me what comes next!"

Dr. Somerville is the pastor of Richmond's First Baptist Church. He holds a Ph.D. in New Testament Studies from Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky but loves to teach and preach the Old Testament as well.

Tickets are not required for these free events.
